

I am writing to voice my disagreement with the repealing the rules that keep a single entity from controlling more than one media source in a single geographic area.

We cannot allow a minority to own the outlets for what the majority needs to know. Providing more controlling interest to a single perspective is incredibly detrimental to providing information and various perspectives to the masses.

And you're attempt to do this while the nation is preoccupied is completely irresponsible.